Moving Forward

Each and every member of Ludlow High School has experienced more technological advancements than our ancestors ever believed possible. These high-tech advancements are helping LHS students become the faces, athletes, citizens, organizers, and sponsors of the future for our town, our country, and our world.

Technology has made it possible to take online courses, conduct research from home and on our cell phones, air our own news show twice a week, and use the SmartBoard for interactive learning in our classrooms. It has also sharpened our communications skills.

We must continue moving forward and embrace the future with open arms because that is where we must keep our hopes and dreams.

"Don't stop, thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone."

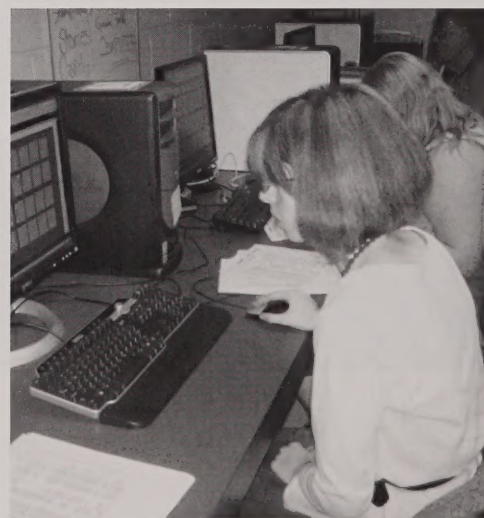

-Fleetwood Mac

A variety of technological equipment is used in the TV Studio.

Faces of the Future

1 Freshman Jake LaPierre enjoys his first year of classes at LHS.

2 Senior Michelle Lau has a great sense of humor.

3 Seniors Steve Lavell and Kevin Musiak converse in wood shop.

4 Freshmen Jessica Pashko, Alexa Repko, and Sarah Wilczynski enjoy health class.

5 Freshman Ryan Wytas is happy to start high school.

The hopes and dreams of the future are the faces of Ludlow High School. The faces seen in this book will one day be seen in newspapers, magazines, on televisions and computers all over the world. These faces are making something of themselves during their four years at Ludlow High, and with these experiences and good times under their belts their hopes and dreams will bring about changes to benefit all. As the many faces of Ludlow High School move forward into the future, they will always see a familiar face everywhere they look.

Who Needs to be Classy When You're a Perfect 10

It has been an exciting four years together. The good times, the bad times; they have all been a worthwhile experience. We have all worked hard at everything we have set our minds to. Yes, ahead of us is a new world, but all that we have been through together has prepared us for everything that lies before us. Our class is one that is united, and in our unity we find strength.

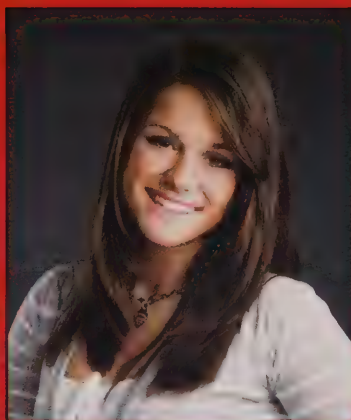

With this strength we will conquer the future. As our high school careers near their ends we must look back on all of our successes, but more importantly, look and plan for what lies in front of us. 2010, congratulations on all of your hard work and good luck with whatever tomorrow brings you.

Organizers of the Future

Throughout the year LHS has hosted many events put on by the students for the students. Some of these events are brand new ideas hatched and meticulously planned until something successful happens. Some of the events are traditions bringing friends together to be active and have a great time. School is an institution to create a future made of leaders and hard workers. Committees plan these events and bring about strong students, ideas and bonds. To be a part of such planning prepares us all to make big things happen in the future.

Holiday Band and Chorus Concert

Every year the Ludlow High School symphony band and concert choir put together a holiday performance in the school auditorium. Under the direction of Mr. Kevin McAvoy and Mr. Daniel Henry the band and choir performed various festive songs to raise holiday spirit in their audience.

National Honor Society

NHS Induction

This year the National Honor Society of Ludlow High School was proud to induct 29 new members including four seniors and 25 juniors. The induction ceremony was held in the LHS auditorium on January 27, 2010. Participants for the National Honor Society must have a 3.33 minimum grade point average, complete various community service requirements, participate in at least two school clubs or athletic teams, and must have no record of disciplinary problems. The members of the National Honor Society represent some of the hardest working students at LHS.

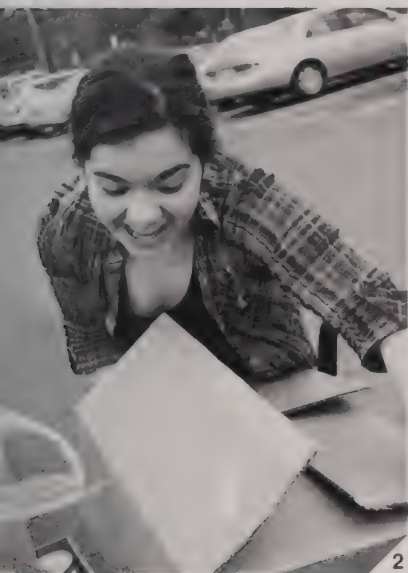

Senior Christopher Fanning gives his speech while inducting junior Kyle Benoit to the National Honor Society.

Food Drive

Every year the Ludlow High School chapter of the National Honor Society contributes to the local May Flower Marathon Food Drive. NHS members collect nonperishable food items from students and faculty at Ludlow High School as well as from the other schools in Ludlow. Members of the group collect and load the food into cars and then deliver the food to the Basketball Hall of Fame.

Homecoming

Each year the Ludlow High School's school paper, the Cub, puts on the traditional Homecoming Dance in the LHS cafeteria. Students dress in semi-formal attire and enjoy refreshments. This year's Homecoming King and Queen were sophomore Gregory Cormier and senior Kaitlyn Murphy. Everyone who attended had a great time dancing, socializing and taking pictures.

- 1 Sophomores Samantha Pietras and Meaghan Stack take a break from dancing.
- 2 Sophomores Michelle Gama and Angela Harrington pose for a picture.
- 3 Homecoming King Gregory Cormier and Queen Kaitlyn Murphy.
- 4 Freshmen Breana Vivier and Samantha Rodrigues enjoy their first Homecoming dance.

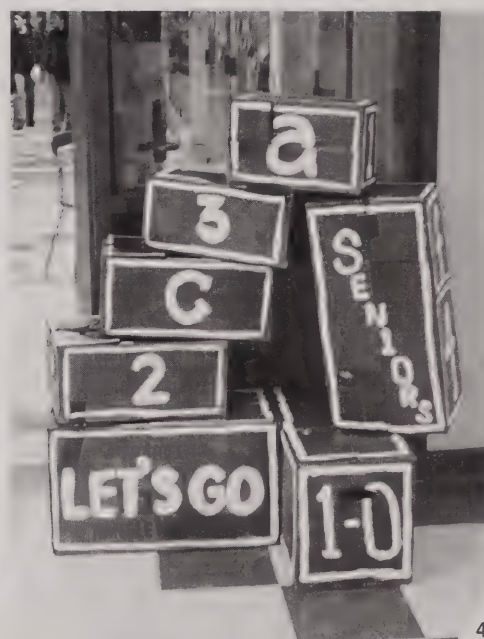

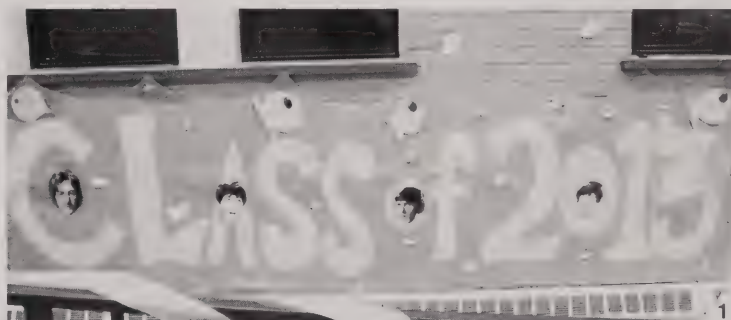

Seniors Vanessa Pasquariello, Karla Dos Santos and Kayla Saraiva enjoy their last Homecoming dance as Ludlow High School students.

Juniors Morgan Glanville, Daniel Carmody and Kyle Wright dressed for success.

For the third time Lions' Pride has put on a marvelous competition between the classes. All of the grades put in a very strong effort, making the judging, which is done by faculty, very difficult. The themes were all different segments of pop culture; ranging from music to movies and childhood characters to sports. The senior class won the competition, but all grades deserve a gold medal for their hard work and spirit. This is an event that defines Ludlow High School.

Deck the Halls

1 The class of 2013 took a ride on the Yellow Submarine with their Beatles themed hallway

2 "Childhood Blues" is just the front cover of the rest of the senior class' story.

3 The class of 2011 employed their artistic talents in their recreation of "A Year Without a Santa Claus".

4 The seniors show off their slogan on a stack of blocks.

The sophomores' "Wally" was a great addition to their Red Sox themed hallway.

Fall Festival

The Lions' Pride Organized, what will soon become an annual event, the Fall Festival. The free festival was a huge success with over 300 people attending. Inflatables were great attractions along with food and games provided by the other clubs and organizations within the school. Of course, we cannot forget the musical chairs and field goal competitions. A Great Job!

1 Seniors Keith Fontaine, Monique LaPierre, Karla Dos Santos, Kaitlyn Murphy, and Stacey Terlik pose for a picture while having a great time at the festival.

2 Sophomores Siearra Papuga and Michalle Gama have a hilarious time hanging out with their friends.

3 Seniors Michelle Lau and Rebecca Fulton are masters of disguise.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank anyone and everyone who helped contribute to the 2010 yearbook. Many people contributed pictures and information for this book and I would like to extend my thanks to each and every one of them. Of course the yearbook advisor, Mrs. Courtney was one of the greatest contributors. She was always positive and reassuring, and I would have been lost without her and her guidance. Jack-of-all trades, Bryan Mahoney, was also an enormous help, as the Business Manager for the Yearbook and also for being what I will call a Co-Editor for the yearbook. I would also like to thank all the underclassmen that came to the yearbook meetings almost religiously after school to help us out with the tedious tasks.
